

Pictures of Mission Trips

Hope you enjoy and are inspired by the pictures.

The six faithful men who teach at Siamafumba School of Biblical Studies and Ronald D. Gilbert, Director of International Bible Teaching Ministries (IBTM)

Wildlife at a game park near Victoria Falls.

No road signs in the bush.

Village life in the bush.

Victoria Falls near Livingstone, Zambia.

Some of the bikes purchased for gospel preachers at $100.00 each- last year we purchased over 30 bikes.

A picture of a new preacher training school in the bush near Kalomo when it was under construction.

A straw hut in back ground where the preacher training school in Kaloma started out.

Three instructors at Zambia School of Biblical Studies who earned their MA degree in Bible last August 2009.

Inside the brush structure where people sit from 7:00Am to about 10:00PM listening to the preaching of God's Word.

Late night tea before bed in the bush.

Chapel session at Zambia School of Biblical Studies in Livingstone, Zambia, they graduated 20 students in November 2009.

Sunday morning worship out in a village.

Jimmie B. Hill teaching a night class at Livingstone, Zambia for International College of The Bible, six signed up for the class.

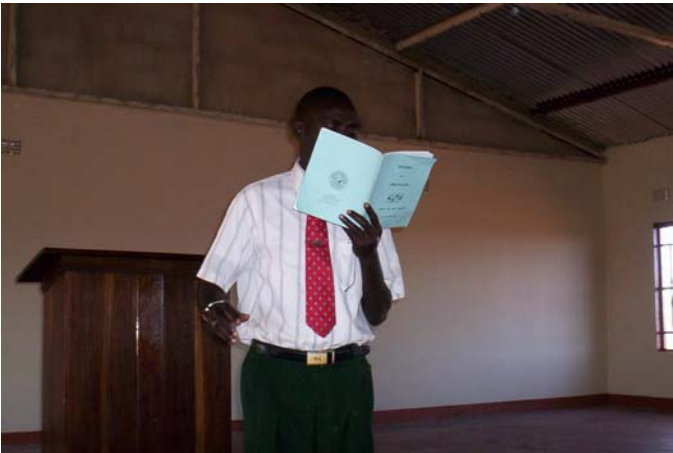

Part of the buildings at Zambia School of Biblical Studies in Livingstone, Zambia. We teach there each year while we are visiting Zambia

One young person being baptized into Christ for the remission of sins.

Getting ready for bed at the Siamafumba meeting.

Song books that were much needed, we sent 5,000 recently.

Lord's Day Worship, some who are very poor give ears of corn for their contribution

Boxes of tracts and gospel materials sent to Zambia by IBTM

Gospel Meeting at the Misika church of Christ near Kalomo, we had 1,000 in attendance and meet outside under the brush structure.

Siamafumba School of Biblical Studies building completed, built by funds donated by Christians in the USA

Gospel meeting at Siamafumba, near Kalomo Zambia, under the brush structure, there were over 2,000 in attendance.

Some of the books IBTM has sent to the new preacher training school in the bush to help train faithful men to preach the gospel of Christ.

Many more books are needed.

These were purchased with funds donated by Christians in the USA

One on two sets of Bible maps given to preacher training schools in Africa

We have sent 500 NKJV Bibles and 1,000 NKJV New Testaments to Africa during the past few weeks. We hope to be able to raise funds to send several thousand more.